Ephesians 6:10-20

How have you felt under attack in this season?

What person or group have you been fighting the “wrong” battle with?

How might God be calling you to love that group or person better?

Who is your “group” who are the few people in your life you can lean on?

How often do you connect with that group?

Are you using the weapons God has given us (Prayer, His word, the Holy Spirit)

God tells us in Luke 10:19 he gives us authority over the enemy. How does knowing this build your faith?

What area of fighting the right battles. Do you need to work on the most?
